BY THE Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor
IRELAND.

Rules, Orders and Directions, to be Observed by the Officers of His Majesty's Army Quartered in Barracks, as well as by the several Barrack-masters.

C A R T E R E T.

WHEREAS it is for His Majesties Service that the several Barracks and Redoubts Built in this Kingdom for Quartering the Army, should be kept in good Repair and Furnished with good substantial Bedding, Sheeting, Utensils for Dressing of Meat, and other Necessaries : For the care and preservation whereof, Barrack-masters are appointed, for whose Government and Direction as well as for the Information

tion and Direction of the Officers and Soldiers to be Quartered therein, We have thought fit to Publish the following Rules, Orders and Directions.

First, Every Barrack-master upon Notice from the Barrack-Office, is to attend the arrival of such Troop or Company, as shall be ordered to Quarter in any Barrack or Redoubt, within his District, and having with such Officer viewed the condition of the said Barrack or Redoubt, and every Room therein, with the Bedding, Furniture, Utensils, Firing and Candle thereunto belonging; to deliver the same to such Officer by Inventory under his Hand, a Duplicate whereof the said Officer is to Sign and Return to the Barrack-master; And from the time of such Delivery by Inventory, such Officer is to stand Charged with the said Barrack, Furniture, Utensils and Necessaries, until such Troop or Company shall be Relieved: And the like method is to be observed by both Barrack-master and Officer, upon every Relief; and if upon View and Examination, it shall be found that any Damage has been wilfully done to the Building, or any part thereof; or that any of the Furniture has been Abused, Imbezeled or Destroyed, either wilfully or by Neglect, or Stealth, the Relieving Officer shall Sign to no more than shall be found in the said Barrack; and the said Barrack-master shall upon Oath, return a true Estimate of the Charge, for making good the Damage done, which shall be stopt out of the growing Subsistence of the Troop or Company last Quartered therein; and returned to the Barrack-master to repair and make good the same.

Secondly, Each Barrack-master shall every Year in the proper Season, provide good and sufficient Firing and Candle for the several Barracks and Redoubts under his care, according to such allowance and proportion as shall be directed by the Overseers of the Barracks, and cause the said Fire to be Stacked up, or placed in some convenient part of the Ground belonging to the Barrack, so as to be preserved and kept from Imbezelment; and thereupon delivered intire to the Commanding Officer Officer of the Regiment, Troop or Company, who shall then Inhabit such Barrack; which Officer is to take care, That the said Firing and Candle be delivered out from time to time in such proportions, as shall for that purpose be appointed by the Overseers of the said Barracks.

Thirdly, If it shall happen that any Troop or Company shall be Commanded away from the Barrack or Redoubt, and no other ordered to Relieve (of which, Notice shall be given to the said Barrack-master) he is thereupon to repair to the said Barrack at the time the Regiment, Troop or Company is to March; and there to receive into his Charge the said Barrack and Furniture, in manner as is before mentioned; and shall also receive such Firing and Candle as ought to remain there in proportion to the quantity and time the Troop or Company has expended thereof, which he is to secure with the Barrack and Furniture, until ordered to deliver them to such Officer as shall be appointed to Quarter therein.

Fourthly, We do also Direct and Require the Field Officers of each Regiment, to give strict Charge to all and every their respective Captains and Subaltern Officers, to observe the Rules, Orders and Directions, before mentioned, as far as they any way relate to them, or the Soldiers under their Command; and to take due care to keep the Soldiers Beds, Bedding and Sheeting, Utensils, &c. sweet and clean; and not to suffer either Non-Commission'd Officers or Soldiers, to make use of any of the Sheeting for Table Linnen or Towels; and at their departure from any Barrack or Redoubt, to leave the same clean and well swept, or else to give the Barrack-master a sufficient allowance in Money for that Service; to which purpose the Officer Commanding, is to appoint a Subaltern Officer once every Day to visit each Room, and see if any Damage be committed, or Imbezelment made of the Furniture, Utensils, Firing, &c.

And We hereby further Direct and Require such Commanding Officer, not to suffer any Soldier to be absent from the said Barrack, but by his Leave and Ticket ; and every Evening before it grows dark to take care that every one belonging to the Regiment, Troop or Company, be in their Quarters, and that the Door or Gate of the Out-court be Locked, and the Key brought to such Officer.

Fifthly, And whereas the Overseers of the Barracks have Contracted with the Barrack-masters to put the several Barracks and Redoubts under their respective care in good Repair, and to have the Bedding, Sheeting and Utensils, now allowed in each Barrack and Redoubt in good order and condition, fit for the Reception and Lodging of such Officers and Soldiers as shall from time to time be Quartered therein : We do therefore hereby Direct and Require all the Officers of every Troop or Company Quartered in each Barrack and Redoubt, to Sign the Printed Certificates with their Observations on the Buildings, Bedding and Utensils, Firing, Candles and Straw, which We require the several Barrack-masters to return to the Quarter Master General, or Register of the Barracks for the future every Three Months, and if upon View and Examination thereof, it shall be found that any of the Roofs, Walls, &c. belonging to the said Barrack or Redoubt, or any of the Bedding, Sheeting or Utensils, be out of Repair or not good in the kind ; such Officer is to acquaint the Barrack-master therewith in order to Repair, Amend or Supply the same with all convenient speed ; which if he shall neglect to do, the said Officer is required to send to the Register of the Barrack-Office an account of the particulars so out of Repair or Wanting, that such Directions may be given therein as shall be thought necessary.

Sixthly, To the end the Officers and Soldiers Quartered in Barracks, may know how often they are to expect clean Sheets, the several Barrack-masters are by Agreement oblig'd once every Fifteen Days to provide one pair of clean Sheets, and no more, for each Commissioned Officers Bed ; and one pair of clean Sheets once every Thirty Days, and no more, for each
Bed

Bed for the Non-commissioned Officers and private Soldiers, upon their returning the foul Sheets at the time they receive the clean, and also for paying unto the Barrack-master Two Pence for each pair for Washing ; which the Officers are to see done accordingly.

Seventhly, That the Officer Commanding in each Barrack, shall not upon any pretence whatsoever, permit or suffer any Women or Children to Inhabit or Lie within any of the said Barracks : But if notwithstanding Our Pleasure herein, any Officer shall presume to admit or allow any Women or Children to Lodge in the said Barracks, upon Notice thereof from the said Barrack-master (which We require him to give) such Officer shall be Suspended from his Command and Pay, till further order.

Eighthly, The Commanding Officer is also hereby required to take care, That the Rooms appointed for the Officers be not made use of by the Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers to Lodge therein, when the Officers are absent ; but when there is a spare Room, the Chaplain or Surgeon of the Regiment may be allowed to Lodge therein during such Officers absence, and to Expend the proportion of Fire and Candle made to such Officer when present.

Ninthly, That no Hounds, Spaniels, or other Dogs, Hawks, or such like, be kept in any of the Rooms of any Barrack or Redoubt that may any way be a Nuisance, or Destructive to the same ; but that all and every Room be kept clean and swept.

Tenthly, Whereas to the great dishonour of God, and scandal of Our Holy Religion, the private Soldiers are daily Guilty of Prophane Swearing and Cursing, notwithstanding the many good Laws made for Punishment of that Vice ; These are therefore to require the Officer in Chief Commanding in each Barrack and Redoubt, to cause all such Soldiers who shall hereafter offend herein, to be Punished according to the said Laws, with the utmost Severity, as they tender the fear of Almighty God.

Eleventhly, That the General Officers at their Reviewing His Majesty's Army, do take a particular View of the several Barracks and Redoubts, together with the Bedding and Utensils, and at their respective Returns make out an Account of the Observations and Remarks of the condition of each Barrack and Redoubt, and of the Bedding and Utensils thereunto belonging, to be immediately presented to Us for Our consideration.

Twelfthly, The Quarter-master General or Adjutant General shall, as often as occasion shall require, take a particular View of the same, and at their respective Returns lay before Us an Account of the Observations and Remarks they make of the condition of each particular above mentioned.

Thirteenthly, It is Our further Pleasure, in Case the King's Service shall require the Quarter-master General's Attendance in any part of this Kingdom, that he shall during his Absence appoint the Register of the Barracks to Act for him.

Fourteenthly, Whereas great care hath been taken to oblige the several Barrack-masters to do their Duty, by making them put the several Barracks and Redoubts in each of their Districts, as well as the Bedding and Utensils thereunto belonging in sufficient repair, according to the Contracts they have entered into for the same; and likewise to oblige them to provide sufficient Firing and Candle in the proper Season for each of their Barracks and Redoubts, to the end that the same may for the future be kept in such good order and condition as was originally designed for the good accommodation of His Majesty's Army, and for the ease of the Subject.

We to prevent all Disputes which might happen between the Officers and Barrack-masters, have Ordered Lists to be Printed and Delivered to the several Barrack-masters of the Numbers of every thing which a Troop or Company ought to have in each Barrack and Redoubt, with the quantity of Firing and Candles which are to be delivered Yearly.

Fifteenthly,

Fifteenthy, And that there may be a good Harmony and Agreement between the Officers and Barrack-masters, We require all Officers Commanding Regiments, Troops or Companies Quarter'd in Barracks or Redoubts punctually to comply with the Rules of the Barracks, and particularly with the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Articles herein before mentioned.

Lastly, We do also hereby Direct and Require all Officers who shall hereafter be obliged to Hire Lodgings for want of Room in the Barracks at the several Garrisons hereafter mentioned, Viz. Charles-Fort, Limrick, Gallway, Londonderry and Carrickfergus, that they make Oath before a Magistrate of the Truth thereof, and that they be very particular as to the time, and that for the future, when any such Case happens at any of the said places before mentioned, there be allowed Five Shillings per Week to each Captain for his Lodgings, and Three Shillings and Six Pence per Week for each Subaltern, and no more, and that no Lodgings be taken by any Officer before he first acquaints the Barrack-board therewith, and obtains an Order for the same.

21st Day of December, 1725.*

By His Excellencie's Command,

Tho. Clutterbuck.

AND

WHEREAS We have Directed One Shilling and Two Pence to be Paid on the First Day of November Yearly to the Colonel or Commanding Officer of each Regiment of Horse and Dragoons, for each Non-commissioned Officer and Private Man in each of their respective Regiments : And Ten Pence Half-penny to the Colonel or Commanding Officer of each Regiment of Foot, for each Non-commission'd Officer and Private Man in each of their respective Regiments of His Majesty's Army in this Kingdom ; for providing the several Utenfils

Utenfils hereafter mentioned for the Use of the said Non-commission'd Officers and Private Men of each Regiment as afore-said, which shall be Quartered in Barracks. And to the end that the said Utenfils may be constantly supplied, We do expect, That the said Colonels and Commanding Officers do take particular care, That the Money so allowed may be put into such Hands as shall provide such Necessaries accordingly ; but least by negligence or any accident the Soldiers should at any time want any of the said Utenfils, or that after the same have been provided, they should be Abused or Spoiled by any of the Men, We do hereby strictly Require the Captain or other Commander of each Troop and Company to see that the said several Utenfils be not only furnished, but also when they are so supplied, That they give strict Charge to their Soldiers not to abuse or spoil them, under the Penalty of making good such Damage or Injury out of their own Pay.

And Our further Pleasure is, If any Damage, Injury or Embezelment, shall hereafter be committed or done to any Barrack or Redoubt, or to the Bedding, Utenfils, Firing and Candle thereunto belonging, (provided by his Majesty) by any of the Soldiers during their being Quarter'd therein ; the same shall be Repaired and Made good by the Officer Commanding in such Barrack and Redoubt before the Men March from thence, or so much Paid in ready Money to the Barrack-master as shall be sufficient to Repair and Make good the same : And if such Officer shall neglect or refuse to give due Obedience to Our Commands herein, upon due Notice from the Barrack-master all the growing Subsistence of such Officer shall be stopt to repair and make good such Damage or Embezelment. And that We may be duly Informed of such Damages as are or shall be committed, We do hereby strictly Require such Officer in Chief to return an account thereof Monthly to the Register of the Barrack-Office in Dublin (without expecting an Answer) of the Condition of the Barracks and Redoubts in which they are Quartered, and of the Damage or Injury (if any) done to the Bedding, &c. therein contained. And

And for the security of such Barracks as may hereafter happen to be empty in any Town where others are at the same time Inhabited, and of the Goods, &c. thereunto belonging, We think fit, That such empty Barracks with the Goods, &c. shall be delivered over by Inventory by the Barrack-master into the charge and care of the Commanding Officer of such Inhabited Barrack, to be by him Guarded and Secured with such Number of Men as he shall think sufficient, which We Require him to receive into his Charge accordingly: And if any Damage shall be done to them during their being under his care, the same shall be made good by such Officer: And that an account thereof may be from time to time taken and Inspection made into the said Barracks, Goods, &c. We further Require such Officer in Chief, to allow the Barrack-master to Visit the said Barracks and Goods as often as he shall see occasion. And whereas Complaints have been frequently made to Us of Soldiers being Indebted in their Quarters above their Subsistence, to the great wrong and Injury of the Inhabitants: For prevention whereof of the like Inconveniencies for the future, Our Pleasure is, And we do hereby Direct and Require all Officers who are or shall Command in Chief in any Barrack or Redoubt upon their first coming to such Quarters, by beat of Drum, or otherwise, to give publick Notice to the Inhabitants of the Town or Place near such Barrack or Redoubt that they do not on any pretence whatsoever Trust any of the Soldiers without a Note from the Commanding Officer, obliging himself to see the same Satisfied and Paid: But if such Note be not procured, the Officer shall not be obliged to answer his Soldiers Debt.

We being Informed, That not only Officers and Soldiers, but also other Persons who have offended against the Laws of this Kingdom, have, to shelter themselves from Justice, fled into the Barracks, where the Civil Magistrates have been deny'd Entrance and Liberty to Seize and Apprehend them: For preventing all Complaints of this kind for the future, We do hereby strictly

strictly Charge and Require the Officer in Chief Commanding in each Barrack and Redoubt, upon application of the Civil Magistrate, not only allow him to Enter and Search for any Officer, Soldier or other Person who shall have committed any Crime or Offence against the said Laws, but to be Aiding and Assisting to such Magistrate in the Execution of his Office, as they will answer the contrary at their Peril.

And that no Officer or Soldier may pretend Ignorance of Our Pleasure herein, We do hereby require the several Barrack-Masters to Affix this Our Declaration on proper places at their respective Barracks; and also to return an Account to the Register of the Barrack-Office, from time to time wherein this Our Declaration is not Comply'd with, and Observed.

Overseers of the Barracks.

Rules, Orders and Directions to be Observed in the Barracks and Redoubts, for Quartering His Majesty's Army in Ireland.

WHEREAS the Barracks and Redoubts Built in this Kingdom for Quartering His Majesty's Army, are Supply'd with Substantial Bedding, Sheeting, Conveniencies for Dressing of Meat, and all other Necessaries : For preservation whereof, as well as the Information of all Persons that are or shall be concern'd therein, We have thought fit to Publish the Rules, Orders and Directions following.

First, That each Barrack-master shall attend the Arrival of such Troop or Company that shall be Order'd to take Possession of any Barrack within his District ; and then and there to apply to the Officer in Chief Commanding the said Troop or Company ; and shall shew to him the Condition of the said Barrack, and every Room therein ; as also all the Beds and Furniture : And shall thereupon deliver to the said Officer an Inventory of the whole, fairly Written, which is to be Sign'd by the said Officer, according to the Lord Lieutenant's Orders bearing Date the Twenty First Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five. And the said Barrack-master shall Sign a Counter-part thereof, and deliver the same to the said Officer, who shall stand Chargeable therewith until such Troop or Company shall be Relieved; and then the said Barrack-master shall take a Review of the said Barrack or Redoubt, and if he finds the said Barracks, Furniture, Utensils, &c. in good order and condition (the ordinary wear and use only excepted) he shall then deliver the Barrack and Furniture to the Relieving Officer by new Inventory Signed as aforesaid; whereupon the Officer Reliev'd shall be Discharged of the Trust. But if any Damage has been wilfully done to the Building, or any part thereof; or that any of the Furniture has been Abus'd, or Firing and Candle embezel'd or destroy'd, either wilfully or by neglect, or stealth; the Officer who is to take Charge thereof, shall Sign to no more than shall be found in the said Barrack, and the Barrack-master shall return upon Oath a true estimate of the Charge for making good the Damage, to be laid before the Overseers, that they may Represent the same to the Government, in order to stop so much out of the Subsistence issuable to the said Troop or Company, which is to be transmitted to the Barrack-master to repair such Damage.

Secondly, Each Barrack-master shall in the proper Season provide Firing and Candle for each Barrack, according to such proportion and allowance as shall be directed; and therein he is to take care to procure that which is best for the Service: which Firing is to be Stack'd up, and placed in some convenient part of the Ground belonging to the Barrack, so as the same may be preserved and kept from embezelment; and when so provided, shall be deliver'd intire to the Officer of the Troop or Company, who is to take care, That the Firing and Candle be proportioned as hereafter is directed; for which the Officer shall Sign a Receipt according to the Lord Lieutenant's aforesaid Orders.

Thirdly, If it shall happen that any Troop or Company shall be Commanded away from the Barrack or Redoubt, and no other

other order'd to Relieve (of which Notice shall be given to the said Barrack-master, as by the Lord Lieutenant's said Rules is set forth) he shall thereupon repair to the said Barrack at the time the Troop or Company is to march, and there receive into his Charge the Barrack and Furniture in manner as is before-mention'd; and shall also receive such parcel of Firing and Candles as ought to remain there in proportion to the quantity and time the Troop or Company has spent thereon: but where other Barracks are at the same place and time possessed by some part of the Army, the Barrack-master is to deliver to the Officer in Chief Commanding in the adjoining Barracks, all such empty Barracks, with the Goods and Utensils, Firing and Candle thereunto belonging; to be by such Officer Guard-ed and Secured from all Injury, Damage or Embezelment: Which Barrack, Goods and Utensils, Fire and Candle, are to be deliver'd over to the Officer Commanding in Chief, by Inventory from the Barrack-master (according to the Lord Lieutenant's former Orders) during which time the Barrack-master is to have no allowance for watching the same, as by Contract. Which Barracks, Furniture, Fire and Candle, shall be preserv-ed and secured in manner as before-mentioned, until order'd to be deliver'd up to the next Relieving Troop or Company.

Fourthly, That no Barrack-master be admitted to Employ any Deputy or Deputies on any account whatsoever; but personally to do his own Duty in all respects (Sickness only excepted.)

Fifthly, Whereas by the Lord Lieutenant's said Orders, the Officers Comanding in the several Barracks and Redoubts, are required not to permit or suffer any Women or Children to Lodge or Inhabit therein, or the Rooms appointed for Officers to be made use of by the Serjeants, Corporals, or private Men, when the Officers are absent: For prevention whereof for the future, and for Punishing the Offenders, the Barrack-Master is from time to time to give an account to the Register of the Barrack-Office, in case this Article is not strictly observ'd:

serv'd : And if any Barrack-master shall neglect his Duty herein, he shall be forthwith Discharged from his Employment ; but where an Officers Chamber is not Inhabited, the Barrack-master is to deliver such Room, with the Furniture, Firing and Candle, to the Chaplain or Surgeon of such Regiment, for his use during such Officers absence, and such Chaplains or Surgeons continuance in Quarters with the Regiment.

Sixthly, That no Officer or Soldier, on any pretence whatsoever, do carry out of the said Barracks or Redoubts any of the Goods, Utensils, Furniture, Firing or Candle ; or make use of the same any where but in the said Barracks or Redoubts, as they will answer the contrary. And if any Officer or Soldier shall Offend herein, upon Notice thereof from the Barrack-master, such Officer will be suspended from his Command and Pay, and the Soldier punished as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors shall think fit.

Seventhly, That no Officer or Soldier do presume on any pretence whatsoever, to remove any Partitions or Bedsteads out of the proper places where they are settled, according to order, in any Barrack or Redoubt.

Eighthly, That the Barrack-master shall once in every Fifteen Days, deliver, or cause to be deliver'd to each Commission'd Officer that shall Lodge or Inhabit in any of the said Barracks, one pair of clean Sheets ; and for each Soldier's Bed made use of in the Barracks by Soldiers, one pair of clean Sheets every Thirty Days, and no more ; the said Officers and Soldiers returning their foul Sheets to the Barrack-master at the time they receive the clean, and also paying to the Barrack-master Two Pence for Washing each pair of Sheets.

Ninthly, That during the time any Barrack or Redoubt shall remain Uninhabited, there shall be allow'd the Firing for one one Room, to be burnt in the said Barrack or Redoubt, to Air the Bedding, Sheeting, &c. that the same may be preserved in good order and condition.

Tenthly, That the Barrack-master do from time to time, as the Troops or Companies March in and out of their respective Barracks, give an Account thereof to the Register of the Barrack-Office in Dublin, by the next Post after they shall so March in and out ; with the particular Days, the Captain's Name, and Regiment they belong to ; upon failure thereof, the Barrack-master to be forthwith suspended.

Eleventhly, That no Hounds, Spaniels, or other Dogs, Hawks, or such like, be kept in any of the Rooms of any Barrack or Redoubt, that may any way be a Nuisance or Destructive to the same ; but that all and every Room be kept clean and swept.

Lastly, Whereas the Quarter-master General of this Kingdom is by his Employment to take care of the Quarters of the Army, who now are all placed in Barracks through the Kingdom, and consequently they become more immediately his care to see them regularly and commodiously provided for : And to the end that each Barrack-master may duly perform his respective Duty, it is order'd, That the said Barrack-masters be under the immediate care of the Quarter-master General ; and that all Accounts relating to the Barracks be immediately directed to the Quarter-master General or Register, to be by him laid before the Overseers. And upon any misdemeanour, the said Quarter-master General may Suspend any of the said Barrack-Masters for Disobedience or Neglect, who shall continue so until their Faults shall be laid before the Overseers, in order to their their Breaking or Restoration as shall be thought fit: and that the said Quarter-master General do lay before the Overseers all Complaints, Defects, or Matters relating to the said Barracks. And that no Barrack-master shall be absent from his Duty, but by License Signed by the said Quarter-master-General.

Given at the Barrack-Office in Dublin, the 24th Day of December, 1725.

By Command of the Overseers of the Barracks.
